2022-2023 Scholarship

The Livingstone College Music and Theatre Arts Department is pleased to announce its first annual Vocal Scholarship Program. This scholarship program consists of four scholarships which cover tuition, fees, room, board, and books, awarded to admitted Livingstone College voice music majors. This is an extraordinary opportunity for talented young vocalist to 1) earn a music bachelor's degree at a private institution with greatly reduced expenses, 2) obtain experience performing solo and collaborative repertoire both on and off-campus in the Piedmont area of North Carolina, and 3) receive lessons and mentorship in a private collegiate applied studio. To be considered for this scholarship, students must submit and complete their Application for Admission to Livingstone College along with the completion of this scholarship applications.

MUSIC DEGREES

Music Liberal Arts Degree

The Liberal Arts Program in Music emphasizes musical performance, history and literature. Students not interested in a professional teaching career may pursue the education and training in the Music Liberal Arts degree track.

Music Teacher Education Degree

The Teacher Education Program is committed to preparing highly skilled and competent teachers for the local communities, the state of North Carolina, and the nation. The program is guided by the theme, "Servant Leaders as Professional Educators: Serve → Lead → Teach".

Theatre Arts & Sacred Music Concentrations

The Sacred Music Degree places emphasis on preparing students to become music leaders in the church. Graduates from this program will know how to read and write music, be familiar with contemporary music trends in the church, as well as, understand the historical role of music within the church.

The Theatre Arts Concentration is designed to provide students with knowledge of the theoretical, historical, and literary aspects of theatre. Students will acquire hand-on experience in the craft and advanced techniques of play production.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

All vocalist are encouraged to audition for scholarships. A completed application must include the items below and be received by June 30th, 2022.

- Student Statement - Please write about what music means to you and your commitment to vocal growth. Also, include how long you have been singing, key influences, teachers, milestones, solo performances and choral experience. (minimum 350 words each)
- A Letter of Recommendation - From a classroom teacher, choir director, or private voice instructor. (recent - within the last calendar year upon date of application submission)
- Audition Video (See Instructions Below)
- Any other additional materials that will support the vocalist's candidacy.

AUDITION VIDEO INSTRUCTIONS

1. Sing the required vocalise (in any comfortable key)
2. Sing two (2) songs in contrasting genres (e.g., styles of music)

HOW TO MAKE AN AUDITION VIDEO

1. Arrange the camera frame horizontally and make sure your entire upper body (i.e., waist above) can be viewed throughout the audition.
2. Audition components (vocalise, contrasting songs) may be recorded within one performance, or recorded separately and then compiled/edited into one video link entry.
3. Please begin the audition video with an introduction of who you are including your name, where you are from, vocal category (e.g., soprano, alto, tenor, or bass), and the titles of your songs.
4. Once you have organized and compiled your video, please submit it via a link to a Google file (shared as "viewer") or an unlisted YouTube video.

The Livingstone College Vocal Scholarship encourages and rewards the hard work and commitment necessary for studying voice at a high level. Upon completing the financial aid package of possible federal grants, awardees will receive a full reduction of all fees associated with tuition, room, board, and books, leaving them with zero balance owed to the college for the academic year, renewable up to four years.

Applications are due June 30, 2022
